

DADS BOOK AND CURRY NIGHT

Friday 30th April 2010

This was a social evening to encourage Dads to get involved and regularly read with their children. The promise of a curry obviously helped! A selection of books from recommended reading lists were displayed.

There was a very positive response to this event and comments included "A great night which we all very much appreciated. Many thanks". "It was a good idea, good for Dads to get out socially at the school". Some great examples of future event suggestions came out of this:

- ❖ Dads and kids sports challenges
- ❖ Make your own go-carts, followed by a race
- ❖ Wii challenge
- ❖ Stories on the beach
- ❖ Juggling/diablos/skipping
