

Koalas

Our learning about Florence Nightingale inspired us to recreate scenes from Scutan Hospital in the Crimean War. We think we would have made excellent nurses!

The Koalas used their interviewing skills to ask questions of characters in the traditional tale of 'Little Red Riding Hood'. Who was brave enough to challenge the Big Bad Wolf?

In our Religious Education learning about Hinduism we created our own Rangoli patterns using coloured chinks.

Koalas love to read!

