

Year three

Year 3 have been doing emotion paintings. The children picked an emotion and had to choose a corresponding colour in which they produced an abstract painting to identify the emotion from the colour.

